

Woods Rogers Vandeventer Black

VIRGINIA'S LAW FIRM®

ESTABLISHED 2022

LEGAL COUNSEL SPANNING VIRGINIA AND THE GLOBE

Woods Rogers Vandeventer Black's (WRVB) five offices span the commonwealth from the Blue Ridge Mountains to Virginia's capital and the Chesapeake Bay. This geographical reach strengthens our ability to serve clients on local, regional, national and international levels. We help many clients manage global business from their Mid-Atlantic base of operations.

Additional offices are located in Kitty Hawk, NC and Hamburg, Germany.

ABOUT WOODS ROGERS VANDEVENTER BLACK

WRVB will be established in 2022 by the merger of two of Virginia's most highly respected law firms.

The combined firm will bring together attorneys with a history of success in key areas, including: corporate transactions, litigation, construction, transportation, energy, labor and employment, government contracting, cybersecurity, intellectual property, and more.

"Mutual respect, cooperation, community leadership and an unwavering dedication to client service are deeply rooted traits we have in common."

—Daniel C. Summerlin, President, Woods Rogers

"By joining forces, we will ensure the continuity of a high-quality multiservice law firm for our clients and at the same time, provide access to more capabilities and resources."

—Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner, Vandeventer Black

"WRVB will become a destination for Virginia's next generation of legal talent, and we will continue to promote the advancement of inclusiveness and diversity through several areas and programs as we move forward in this merger."

—Victor O. Cardwell, Chairman, Woods Rogers
